

The Anthropology of International Organisations
Convenor : Birgit Müller (LAIOS, CNRS-EHESS)

Panel at the XVI International Congress of The International Union of Anthropological and Ethnological Sciences UIAES

15th – 23rd of July 2008, Kunming, China

Gerhard Anders, Institute of Social Anthropology, University of Zurich
« Knowledge practices at the Special Court for Sierra Leone »

Laëtitia Atlani-Duault, University of Lyon, France
« An anthropologist among aid workers »

Irène Bellier, LAIOS, CNRS/EHESS, Paris
« The Indigenous Peoples Causus at the UN: Globalised Identity and Collective Rights »

Paul Dima, Paris
« African entrepreneurs challenge their states to appeal to the Arbitration Committee of the WTO »

Christina Garsten, University of Stockholm
« Transparency and the global gaze: transnational organizations and the problem of social accountability »

Ellen Hertz, Anthropology Institute, University of Neuchâtel (Switzerland)
« Studying Too Up, or what to do with utopianism in the analysis of international organizations »

David Mosse, SOAS London
« Experts, officers and altruists: notes on the anthropology of expertise and professionals in international development »

Birgit Müller LAIOS, CNRS/EHESS
« Elaborating Policies in Biotechnology. FAO's interaction with an emergent global civil society »

Shalini Randeria, University of Zürich
« An Anthropology of the World Bank Inspection Panel »

Marion Fresia
« Negotiating public policies and norms on refugee protection: the power dynamics of UNHCR's Executive Committee »